Atty-Client Mail: Open in Inmate's Presence

Dear Mr. Watkins,

I am enclosing the speedy trial waiver I spoke with you about. And I am also sorry about the confusion over the earlier time exclusion. I thought we talked about that, but you say we did not. I apologize if that's the case. W.W.

However, as your attorney, I can assure you that I feel strongly that I do need the time to represent you effectively. There is a ton of evidence out there that needs to be analyzed, organized, and dealt with thoroughly. And if we do go to trial, I will need a lot of time to properly and effectively prepare for you. 1-28-23

This is your life, and I take it seriously. So whatever I do is intended to be for you, and in your best interests. So in that regard, I ask that you sign and return the waiver to me in the stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Sanford Plotkin
